

2018 Legends Fields Alcohol Policy

ALCOHOL CANNOT BE BROUGHT INTO LEGENDS FIELDS COMPLEX.

People bringing in Alcohol will be asked to throw away all open alcohol and let complex staff hold onto all closed containers until they leave the complex. Closed containers are not allowed to be kept in any vehicle's.

Violation of the Alcohol rules will be asked to leave the Complex. If needed, management will call the Oswego County Sheriffs or New York State Troopers.

Alcohol is not permitted on ball fields in dugouts or on the outside of dugouts.

Any League or Tournament participants who do not follow the Alcohol policy will be removed from their game and face suspension from future games, tournaments and potentially placed on the complex restrictive list. No refunds will be granted to participants or teams that break the Alcohol policy.

The Team manager must inform all players of the alcohol policy prior to the start of the league or tournament. The manager and roster players must sign this document before being allowed to participate at Legends Fields.

I have read the alcohol policy and informed all team members. Further, on behalf of my Team I agree that my team will follow the Alcohol Policy for Legends Fields.
